

Photo by Orestes Gonzalez Photography

Editor's note: Orestes Gonzalez is photographer, writer, architect and resident of LIC since 1989. He has traveled to over 45 countries, documenting the rich heritage of man's intervention on this planet. His column, ORESTES' LIC, documents scenes that leave a mark on our great city. Take a look at his latest images: www.orestesgonzalez.format.com, or go to his daily Instagram feed: @setseroz

ART LOVERS

LIC residents Chloe McGowan, 6 and Maya Torres, 6, act cute and admire a piece by LIC artist Cristian Pietrapiana at the opening of the group exhibit 'Fever' at the Plaxall Gallery, now running through Sept. 30th.